

BONALDO

Crossroad

Crossroad is a sculptural design, designed by Oriano Favaretto, marked by an end feature that leaves a strongly dynamic mark in a setting. Its basic element is a matt lead-colour painted metal cylinder which, at both ends, encloses the light source inside a sophisticated amber-coloured glass element. The play of light and the criss-crossing of the arms in a multitude of directions makes Crossroad a lamp capable of distinguishing settings, thanks to its remarkable scenic impact, represents nothing less than a functional and decorative element able to create pleasant atmospheres and sensations. The Crossroad collection consists of a table lamp and two floor lamps, making it possible to create interesting coordinated combinations.
